2010 VALA Annual Conference: Learning On The EDGE

March 19, 2010

Rydges Bell City Hotel, Preston

Here we stand on the edge. The edge of the 21st century, the edge of a technological (and, we are assured, an educational) revolution. 'Learning on the EDGE' is looking for new ways of learning with and for young people who are on the edge between school and work, youth and adulthood, formal and lifelong learning.

Over 300 participants attended the 2009 VALA Conference and a similar number of participants are expected to attend the 2010 conference.

VALA welcomes you to participate in this event through the following display and sponsorship opportunities:
